IT IS AN OFFENCE TO FILE A FALSE STATEMENT

PURPOSE

Form 26 is used by the candidate to declare campaign contributions and expenses and the resulting surplus or deficit for each calendar year of the four-year campaign period.

A person who contravenes s.147.4 and who fails to comply within 30 days of the time provided and pay the municipality a late filing fee of $500 is guilty of an offence and liable to a fine of not more than $5,000.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Enter the contact information for the staff member of the local jurisdiction responsible for FOIP matters.
2. Enter the complete and official name of the local jurisdiction for which the election was conducted.
3. The candidate enters the calendar year of disclosure. (Note: The campaign period is four years and each year is reported separately).
4. The candidate enters their name as it was entered on the written notice submitted in accordance with s.147.22 or on the Nomination Form.
5. The candidate enters their complete mailing address and postal code.
6. The candidate enters contribution amounts for the year as indicated.
7. The Total Campaign Period Revenue is the total of the contributions, (include all money and valued personal property, real property or service contributions) any self-funded amounts, any donations from fund-raising functions and any surplus or deficit brought forward from a previous campaign period.
Instructions continued on the next page.

8. Enter the amount of paid and unpaid expenses, then the total expenses for the calendar year.
9. Deduct the total expenses from the total campaign revenue to determine the surplus or deficit for the calendar year.
10. Candidate must sign and date the form.
