MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

SOUTH COUNTRY CO-OP AGRO CENTER

South Country Co-op's roots in Vauxhall stretch back to 1961, when the Vauxhall Co-op began with a leased fuel truck — and a three-digit phone number: 474. More than 65 years later, we are incredibly proud to still be serving the farmers, families and businesses who make this community home. Today, our Vauxhall Agro Centre supports one of Alberta's most remarkable agricultural regions, from sugar beets and potatoes to large-scale farming operations. Led by longtime Manager Melissa Golby, our small but mighty team provides fuel, fertilizer, crop inputs, seed and agronomic support, meeting customers where they are and helping their farms and businesses succeed. But being part of Vauxhall has always meant much more than doing business here. We proudly support local 4-H clubs, schools, the library, the Ag Society, community events and food grains initiatives. We were especially proud to have sponsored the renovated kitchen in the Vauxhall Community Hall, host our annual Snowflake Frolic dinner, and have our team volunteer throughout the community. For us, Vauxhall is more than a place we serve. It is home. We are grateful for the generations of local farmers whose stewardship has shaped this beautiful land, and proud to play a small part in the legacy they continue to build.
